Several Rural Districts To Get Street Lights

New Bedford, Oakland, Edenburg, And Parts Of Several Townships Included

SYSTEMS TO BE READY SHORTLY

Another city convenience is now being secured by several rural residence districts in this vicinity. Under the township code street lighting installations are being made in several such districts. The code permits township supervisors to arrange for street lighting whenever the property owners in sections of the township petition them for such lighting.

Districts To Benefit

Contracts have been entered into with Pennsylvania Power company for lighting in the following districts: New Bedford, the Oakland district of Union township, Edenburg, Martha street extension in Shenango and Taylor townships, Euclid avenue in Nesheim township and Frisco in Franklin township of Beaver county. Several other rural districts are giving consideration to similar installations.

Under the law, township supervisors are permitted to levy taxes for this lighting from the property owners benefited.

Will Be Great Advantage

The safety and convenience of the street lighting systems will be of great advantage to the various areas and are evidence of the progressive spirit in the communities. Shortages of materials have prevented the installation of equipment but it is hoped that the lighting systems can be completed within the next few months.

Earthquake On Honshu Island

TOKYO, Feb. 26.—(INS)—A sharp earthquake of brief duration jolted Tokyo and the entire Kanto plain area of Honshu island shortly after 8 a. m. today. No damage was reported.

Scientists at the Central observatory in Tokyo described the quake as "fairly weak" and said its epicenter was just off Handeda airport in Tokyo Bay.

Col. E. S. Holmes, of Missoula, Mont., said the airports installations rocked sharply but were not damaged. Holmes, commanding officer of Handeda, was welcoming 200 replacements at the airport when the temblor struck.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Leonard LaRocca, 102 South Beaver street, brought into The News office today one of the strangest looking eggs that Pa New has ever seen. What the phenomenon was, was really an egg within an egg. The larger outer shell which was soft, formed the casing for another perfectly formed egg within it carrying its own shell. The strange egg was laid by a white rock hen owned by Peter S. Grimm, R. D. 1, New Wilmington.

Pa New notes that the loading of buses in the downtown section of the city has been slowed up considerably by unthinking patrons the past few days. Some riders who are most generally the first to get on the bus when a number of riders are waiting to get on, pull out five or ten dollar bills, causing much lost time as the operator of the bus counts out change. While the bus is moving the drivers are unable to count the bills and drive too.

J. W. Davis, 111 North Jefferson street, brought Pa New an interesting item yesterday—an advertisement printed by the old Courant press of the city and made for the H. J. Lewis company, dealers in saddles and harnesses. Mr. Davis (Continued on Page Two)

Will Move To Put Senators On Record On Cut In Budget

By WILLIAM THEIS
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Sen. Bridges (R) N. H., hinted today that before the Senate writes a four and one-half billion dollar budget cut Democratic members will have their chance to go on record for President Truman's thirty-seven and one-half billion dollar request. "I'd like to see that," the Senate appropriations chairman declared.

His statement suggested a GOP maneuver to put minority members in a "no economy" position.

May Force Vote

Bridges said GOP leaders were prepared to try to "force" a vote today on the Miliken amendment trimming the House-approved six billion budget slash to four and one-half billions.

Superfortress Is Missing In Alaska Area

(BULLETIN)

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Feb. 26.—(INS)—A B-29 Superfortress was missing today on a flight from Elmendorf field near Anchorage.

The army said the flight was "lost" but admitted that for a B-29 that meant a long way, probably several hundred miles.

Planes of the army's search and rescue unit have begun searching the rugged Alaska coast for the missing plane.

About 11 men were aboard, but authorities were not sure of the exact number. They said the flight was "a routine training mission".

The search was hindered by over-cast skies. The plane took off Monday night and had enough gasoline for 11 hours.

Army authorities said the plane might have been forced down where its wireless could not be heard, but said "there are so many possibilities that we are not advancing any as our own theory of what may have happened."

Ninety-Three Are Still In Hospitals In Purdue Crash

(BULLETIN)

LAFAYETTE, Ind. Feb. 26.—(INS)—The death toll in the Purdue University basketball bleachers collapse mounted to three today when Theodore E. Nordquist, 25, of Gary, Ind., a senior, died at the Home hospital in Lafayette.

LAFAYETTE, Ind. Feb. 26.—(INS)—Ninety-three persons still were hospitalized today, eight in a critical condition, as investigation continued into the collapse of a bleachers stand at the Purdue field house. Two students were killed in the accident.

Hospital attention was given to 166 persons injured Monday night when the bleachers crashed under the weight of 3,400 spectators at the Purdue-Wisconsin basketball game.

Most of the hospitalized injured were reported to have suffered fractures and sprains.

In addition, the Purdue university health service reported that 425 persons were treated for minor injuries by members of its staff.

A joint state and university investigation of the tragedy was decided upon after separate probes had been proposed by Gov. Ralph F. Gates of Indiana and Allis E. Stuart, president of the Purdue board of trustees.

Mystery Explosion In New York Area

YONKERS, N. Y., Feb. 26.—(INS)—An explosion of unknown origin shook Yonkers, Tuckahoe, Scarsdale and Eastchester early today.

Several pictures fell from the walls of residences. Police and fire officials were unable to find any evidence of the blast and expressed belief that it might have been a gas accumulation in the Delaware water tunnel of the New York city water system.

Dies In Crash

Air stunt ace John G. (Tex) Rankin, 53, was killed in a plane crash near Klamath Falls, Ore. Two other persons died and a fourth was critically injured. Holder of two world air stunting championships, Rankin often carried a black cat in his plane. (International)

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 26.—The unprecedented strike of Buffalo school teachers proceeded today with union officials keeping an eye open on possible developments at the state capitol in Albany.

There was a feeling that some kind of legislative action aimed at giving the teachers a salary increase was forthcoming. But, if this did not develop the teachers of Buffalo were prepared to remain away from the class rooms indefinitely.

The situation this morning was serious. Buffalo's school system was virtually paralyzed. Less than 400 of Buffalo's 2,968 teachers were reporting for duty and only 19 elementary and two high schools of the city's 98 schools were open.

May Close High School

The closing of Lafayette high school seemed imminent. The situation at this school was so serious a special meeting of the board of education was held last night. Sixty-nine of the school's eighty teachers petitioned Superintendent Robert T. Bapst to close the school because of light attendance and inability to obtain coal.

Union truck drivers said they would not deliver coal supplies through picket lines. The teachers, however, have not established regular picket lines and have sent only "observers" to the various schools.

However, after a sharp discussion at the board of education meeting efforts of Superintendent Bapst to receive authorization to close the school were defeated as a result of opposition voiced by Wallace H. Miller, a lawyer and one of the members of the board. "Our schools should be kept open as long as possible," Miller insisted.

June 21 To Mark Start Of Primary Campaign In State

HARRISBURG, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's 1947 municipal election campaign will begin June 21 under legislation scheduled to be sent Gov. James H. Duff Monday.

Both the House and Senate have approved a series of bills numbering the primary election in odd-numbered years from June to September. Under the bills, candidates may circulate nomination petitions June 21 while July 21 will be the last day to file with the state elections bureau. The primary election will be held September 9 instead of June 17.

Fresh Snowfalls In State Today

HARRISBURG, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Fresh snowfalls ranging up to eight inches today were reported in western and central counties.

Snow was still coming down in Erie and Mercer counties, according to the State Highways department. Thirty-four inch accumulated drifts covered Westmoreland county, it reported.

All main roads were opened, but some secondary routes were blocked by snow slides, the department stated.

Douglas Named As Ambassador To Great Britain

Nomination Is Sent To Senate By President Truman This Afternoon

(BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(INS)—President Truman today named Lewis W. Douglas, 52, former director of the budget, as United States ambassador to Great Britain. The nomination was sent to the senate, where early confirmation was expected.

Douglas was chosen as a replacement for the late O. Max Gardner, who died unexpectedly in New York a few hours before he was to have sailed for England to assume the nation's No. 1 diplomatic post abroad.

Douglas, who has been president of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York since 1940, resigned as a member of congress from Arizona in 1933 to accept the late President Roosevelt's appointment as director of the budget.

Douglas left the university to return to the United States as head of the Mutual Life Insurance Co. A native of Bisbee, Ariz., Douglas is married and has three children, Stuart, Peter and Sherman. Mrs. Douglas is the former Peggy Zinsner. The ambassador-elect is a World War I veteran.

Announcement of his selection as ambassador to the court of St. James came with dramatic suddenness.

O. P. A. Appears Nearing End

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(INS)—A cross-fire of house curtailment of funds and senate legislation abolishing the agency appeared today to have doomed OPA to death within 30 to 60 days.

Sen. Bridges (R) N. H., Senate Appropriations chairman, indicated his committee would provide enough money to run the agency for a month if another deficiency bill is in sight.

But he added that if legislation to abolish OPA enforcement of rent controls, now pending in the banking committee, is passed along with a transfer of sugar controls, "we'd let them wind up right away."

Bridges' committee is considering an urgent deficiency bill in which the house denied an OPA request for 5.9 million dollars and ordered that OPA return to the treasury nine millions it now has.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(INS)—The latest attempt at merger of the AFL and CIO collapsed today thru inability of the two rival labor groups to agree on how to approach the task.

CIO President Philip Murray firmly maintained that the organizations first should unite on a common program against anti-labor legislation and then proceed to the larger issue of "organic unity."

AFL President William Green insisted just as firmly that amalgamations should be the initial step. In a letter to Murray he said: "The representatives of the AFL stand ready to meet with you and your associates for the purpose of creating organic unity and solidarity within the ranks of labor."

Until this is accomplished, no good purpose will be served by attempting to deal with a vital problem in a temporary and make-shift way.

Sentence Is Imposed On Robt. C. Love

Five To Ten Years In Western Penitentiary Is Penalty Given By Court

ENTERS PLEA IN COURT TODAY

Robert C. Love, former president of the First Securities Company and former vice president of the First National Bank of Lawrence County and of the Union Trust Company of New Castle, was today sentenced to a total of five to ten years in the Western Penitentiary in Pittsburgh, for embezzlement of the security company's funds and also for making false corporate statements. The sentence was pronounced at 10:30 this morning by Judge W. Walter Brabham, with Judge John G. Lamoree sitting with him. Love was also fined $1 and costs on each of the eleven charges against him.

Mr. Love was arrested January 17, accused of embezzling approximately $221,000 of the funds of the First Securities Company. Later investigation proved that he was criminally liable for only about $21,000, the balance being out-layed by the Statute of Limitations which bars prosecution after six years from the commission of the crime.

Love was brought from the county jail to number one jury room at 9:30 this morning. There with his attorneys, former Judge Charles Matthews, Jr., and District Attorney Leroy K. Donaldson, he signed a plea of "nolo contendere" (no defense) to nine charges of embezzlement and two charges of making false corporate statements.

The first two charges, 50 and 50-A, charged making false corporate statements. It was upon these two counts that the real sentence was imposed. Upon each of them the court imposed a fine of $1 and costs and 2 1/2 to 5 years in the Western Penitentiary, to run consecutively. Upon the Bills of Indictment, 51 through 51-H, charged (Continued on Page Twelve)

Observers predicted that night-shifts will become a permanent feature of British industry for at least three years, as a means of distributing electricity demands by industry over a 24-hour period instead of just during the day.

Women should be included in the staggered shift plan, just as would the men.

Approximately seven million workers in all industries, including about two million women, would be involved.

Worst Blizzard Strikes Britain

Northern England Lashed By Worst Storm Of Half Century

By CHARLES A. SMITH
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Feb. 26.—The worst blizzard of Britain's most severe winter in a half-century lashed northern England today. The storm isolated villages and threatened again to tie-up mining districts.

Despite the blizzard, most collieries were hard at work trying to beat the fuel crisis which, though diminished greatly in recent days, has led to repeated warnings that it cannot be considered "over" by any means.

The sudden driving snow gave added impetus to consideration by the government of plans to stagger working hours to reduce the industrial power load.

Russia's Support Of U. S. On Mandated Islands Is Surprise

By GEORGE DUNO
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Russia's surprise approval of the American bid for control of the former Japanese mandated islands today raised the question in Washington diplomatic circles of whether the Soviet would expect U. S. support of her territorial expansions in return.

The American capital viewed the Soviet move with pleasure—and some latent apprehension—as Secretary of State George Marshall prepared to leave for Moscow and the all-important big four council of foreign ministers.

Soviet domination of the Balkan states—except Greece—is regarded as a fait accompli, although the Washington government still is probing testing elections in Poland and dissemination of anti-American propaganda in the middle east generally.

In Delicate Position

Russian acceptance of future U. S. occupation of the Marianas, Carolines and Gilberts in the Pacific left Washington in a somewhat delicate position.

The United States is determined to make key islands in that area "strategic bases." Formal request already is in for a United Nations trusteeship.

What future concessions Moscow might demand in exchange was problematical.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Feb. 26.—(INS)—The United Nations security council will receive an explanation today of its claim for permanent trusteeship over 623 formerly Japanese mandated islands in the Pacific.

Warren R. Austin, principal American representative, has prepared a 4,000-word statement on the "strategic area" involved and will read it before the 11-nation body at the 3 p. m. session.

Soviet Russia's surprise move in consenting to the sole American trusteeship as announced by Secretary of State Marshall has altered the prevailing situation little except perhaps to spur debate on the question of immediate action by the security council.

Clear Up Legal Angles

Sir Alexander Cadogan of Britain has indicated that while there are no ultimate objections to such a step, Britain feels that numerous legal angles have to be cleared up and that decisions on such a matter should be postponed until after the treaty with Japan has been signed. His attitude today will be prescribed by London instructions.

Paul Hasluck of Australia is generally expected to become the leading opponent of the American request. A comprehensive statement from the Australian government is expected to be made by him at the (Continued on Page Two)

Fourteen Nurses Given Diplomas

MAHER PRESIDES DURING PROGRAM

Diplomas were presented to 14 student nurses of the New Castle Hospital School of Nursing—the first mid-year cadet class to graduate—at exercises Tuesday evening in Ben Franklin Junior High school auditorium.

The students enrolled in the class on February 21, 1944. Cadet Nurses Corps. During that time the fury of World War II had gripped the world, and the urgent need for nurses was imperative.

Thus the accelerated program of the Nurses Cadet program was instituted—and the fourteen young ladies answered the call for more nurses.

John J. Maher, chairman of the School of Nursing Council, presided at 8 o'clock, and in his brief opening plea, urged all young women in the audience to consider the nursing profession as a career. He complimented the graduates on successfully having reached this important step in their life.

Dr. Nathan N. Ginsburg, of the New Castle hospital staff, as first speaker of the evening, extended high praise to the young nurses for dedicating themselves to a profession where the qualities of unselfishness were of unusual importance. (Continued on Page Two)

Communist Party May Be Outlawed

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Rep. Mundt (R) S. D. disclosed today that the house committee on un-American activities is exploring the possibility of outlawing the communist party.

Mundt, a committee member, declared that "we're having our lawyers 'look into it'."

The congressman added in an interview that the committee has "given some thought to doing just that" but no determination has been reached yet on whether the move would be constitutional.

Truman Submits Draft Of Armed Merger Proposal

Would Make Changes In Cabinet Posts And Some Departments

WOULD UNIFY ARMY AND NAVY (BULLETIN)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(INS)—President Truman today submitted to congress a draft of proposed legislation unifying the army and navy into a single department of national defense.

The legislation would abolish the cabinet posts of the secretary of war and the navy and establish a new cabinet officer controlling the unified departments.

This new secretary of national defense would replace the present secretaries of war and navy in the presidential line of succession.

The unification proposal would create a secretary of the army, secretary of the navy and secretary of the air force heading three departments within a new "national defense establishment," which would function under the national defense secretary.

None of these three secretaries would have cabinet rank.

The heads of the three departments would, however, have access directly to the president without necessarily clearing through the secretary of national defense on matters of policy.

The proposed unification in effect would be a merger on the command (Continued on Page Two)

Byrd Expedition Is Making Way Out Of Ice Pack

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Representing the Combined American Press

ABOARD THE U. S. MT. OLYMPUS, Feb. 26.—The icebreaker Burton Island rammed through the last great stretches of the ice pack today and was expected to rendezvous tomorrow (Thursday) with the Mt. Olympus at the outer edge of the frigid Antarctic moat.

Rear Admirals Richard Byrd and R. H. Cruzen with many of the 197 men who lived at Little America for 39 days, are expected to transfer immediately to this ship if the sea is calm enough. The icebreaker Northwind is due to join the other two ships shortly thereafter.

Will Sail To New Zealand

The three vessels, winding up the central group of activities of the 4,000-man expedition, then will sail to New Zealand, where they are due to arrive March 7, or possibly earlier, for a six-day holiday.

The Mt. Olympus advanced the clock 24 hours today after crossing the International Dateline. The clocks were set ahead at noon in a sudden transition from Tuesday morning to Wednesday afternoon, thus eliminating Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning. The advancement puts us 17 hours ahead of Eastern Standard Time and this is written at 2:20 a. m. E. S. T. Wednesday. It is expected that the present time will be maintained until after the departure from New Zealand.

The eastern task group today reached the largely unexplored Weddell Sea area, but the weather was unfavorable for flights. The eastern task group, which was off MacRobertson and Enderby Land, reported that the weather was good and that it hoped to launch an exploratory plane.

Perry S. Gaston Post Takes Action At Meeting Condemning Indicated Change

SOME EMPLOYEES ARE TRANSFERRED

Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, at its meeting in the Legion Home Tuesday evening, presented a resolution, condemning any proposed change in the Veterans Administration Office here, which will result in reducing medical service for veterans in the local area.

Some employees have already been transferred from the local office to the Pittsburgh Regional office, and it is feared that more may be sent there in the near future, curtailing the services offered here.

Assistance of other veterans organizations and of the Greater New Castle Association will be sought by the American Legion Post, in an effort to forestall any such action, if it is contemplated here, it was stated today by officers of the post.

New Castle Radio Man Assists In Daring Rescue

It was learned today that John H. Schuffert of this city, was a radio man on the C-54 plane that made the daring rescue of the 11 stranded men 600 miles from the North Pole in Greenland.

The radio man is a brother of William E. Schuffert of 409 East Garfield avenue, and in a talk with Mrs. Schuffert, this morning, she reported that her husband had not heard from John for quite some time and was surprised to learn of the rescue work in which he was involved.

Schuffert served four years in the Army as radio man in Europe and Africa and last December re-enlisted for a two year period. He had been residing with his stepmother in Toledo since leaving New Castle, and had visited this city a little over a year ago.

At the same time it was indicated the Senate would approve another amendment, putting payments on the public debt ahead of tax reductions. An amendment by Sen. Knowland (R) Calif., would earmark the first three billions of any surplus to debt retirement.

Responsible Republicans foresaw adoption of the Knowland amendment or a substitute applying a "certain" two or two and one-half billions on the 260-billion dollar debt.

Sees Graduated Tax Cut

Rep. Knutson (R) Minn., chairman of the House ways and means committee, author of the 20 percent tax cut plan, warned members that the levies could not be cut across the board if the Senate trims the House-approved budget cut of six billions.

Knutson said the tax cut would have to be graduated instead.

The Democratic demand for a change to vote affirmatively on Mr. Truman's full budget request was most strongly voiced by Sen. Pepper (D) Fla., on Monday.

Minority Leader Barkley (D) Ky., at that time suggested Pepper and other Democrats who felt that way could express their "protest" against GOP handling of the budget issue by voting against both the four and one-half and six billion proposed cuts.

Half a dozen senators remained to speak at some length on the budget resolution fixing an overall ceiling on Federal expenditures for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Barring some further parliamentary tangle, leaders on both sides looked for a final vote late today.

level, creating a separate department of the air force, and without the army or navy losing their status as distinctive services with specific duties to perform in their own spheres of operation in wartime.

The proposal would create a war council composed of the secretary of national defense as chairman, with power of decision; the secretary of the army, the secretary of the navy, the secretary of the air force, the chiefs of staff of the army and air force, and the chief of naval operations.

A joint chiefs of staff would be created consisting of the chiefs of staff of the army and air force, the chief of naval operations and the chief of staff to the president, if that post is continued.

The joint chiefs of staff would be the primary and planning board for the armed services.

Other Set Ups

Other establishments set up under the unification proposal would be:

(1) A munitions board composed of representatives of the three military departments.

(2) A research and development board with two representatives from each of the three departments.

(3) A national security council composed of the secretary of state, national defense, army, navy, air force and the chairman of the national security resources board.

(4) A central intelligence agency which already exists.

FOURTEEN NURSES GIVEN DIPLOMAS

fishness, sympathy and patience are important requisites. "Follow in the footsteps of Florence Nightingale," he said, "and you will be of the highest calibre to enjoy a rich and abundant life." He also enumerated many qualities to make a good Florence Nightingale, such as, education, judgment, dignity, courtesy, perception, obedience, self control, tact, and others.

Pastor Speakers

Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, assistant pastor of St. Vitus church, was another speaker on the program. He said in part: "In alleviating suffering for mankind—the nurse not only does it for the person, but for Christ himself. Elevate your work as nurses, see the divine in all that you do—realize the spiritual and religious value in your profession, and you will be a fine nurse in a noble profession." In his message to the students, Fr. Inteso stressed two main thoughts: "You are beginning a new life, and if you ever needed character, principles and good morals, you need them now. You have chosen one of the finest and most exalted of professions, and by law you are the love of your fellowman and having courage, you will be all that is expected of a nurse."

Presents Diplomas

The diplomas were presented during the program by Adolph Green, president of the board of trustees. In the spirit of brotherhood, Mr. Green urged the girls to show "love for one another," by all persons, regardless of race, color and creed. In a world where intolerance, greed and hate is prevalent, it is necessary for the young generation to help eliminate racial prejudices, entirely before it becomes a fixture in the world. Due credit was extended to the School of Nursing, and director Sister M. Dolores for the guidance of the students, until the completion of the training.

A Cappella Choir Sings

An excellent musical program was provided this year during intermission, by the a cappella choir of the New Castle Senior high school, under the direction of Robert A. Duff.

Their selections were: O Sing Your Songs—Cain; Celestial Voices—Alcock; From Grief to Glory—Christensen; and Grant Unto Me the Joy of Thy Salvation, by Brahms.

The orchestra offered the procession, "March Victorious," by J. Alsdorf as the graduates filed into the auditorium. The National Anthem was the opening selection sung by the audience, and Melodie by Priml and Reverie by Zamecnik were addition selections. The recessional closed the program.

first move to block immediate approval of the trusteeship grant by the council.

The Russian acquiescence was viewed by the American delegation here with "gratification" but Austin has indicated he will leave it to the council to debate the matter at length or shelve it for future consideration. It is pointed out that there is no urgency as far as the United States is concerned, since America in any case retains indefinite possession of the islands.

Diplomatic observers quickly noted, however, that the Soviet conciliatory gesture was based on the general explanation that this was in recognition of the decisive role played by the American forces in the war against Japan.

American Indians believed that if a father, near the time of the birth of his child, was careless of his meat diet, the child would suffer and inherit the physical faults and peculiarities of the animals eaten, says the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Had You Thought Of It This Way?

When we speak of personal service it has many implications — and we endeavor to fulfill all of them.

For instance, we never forget that those entrusted to our care are mothers, fathers, sons or daughters of our patrons. They are as dear to their families as our own are to us, and we treat them accordingly.

Remember this if that kind of personal service means anything to you.

Cold Weather Aids Water Company Job

Task Of Laying Six-Inch Main For Universal Plant Benefitted By Present Cold Snap

"It's an ill wind that blows nobody some good," is an old adage which is proving true in the case of the City of New Castle water company, in its job of laying a six-inch main from Cherry street to a point below the B. & O. and P. & L. E. railroad bridge over the Shennango river.

The cold snap has kept the river at a low stage, enabling them to put the line down in good time. Another day or two of weather like the present will see the job finished, but should a warm snap set in, it would melt off the snow and raise the stage of the river, forcing a postponement of the job until the stream would subside to normal levels.

By tomorrow, the job of crossing the river will get under way, and it will take about two days to complete this part of the job. With continued cold weather promised for tomorrow, it is hoped that the job can be completed before the next thaw starts.

The main will furnish water to the Universal Sanitary & Manufacturing company plant at New Castle Junction. The company will lay a connecting line around 3,000 feet from the end of the main to its plant.

positional, denied comment when asked if thought the Soviet was attempting to establish a precedent for her own land seizures.

Vexing Situation

The situation in Korea at the moment was especially vexing. Lieut. Gen. John R. Hodge, commander of U. S. forces in that far eastern area, was back in Washington complaining that the Soviets were building up an army of 500,000 Koreans in violation of the Moscow agreement.

American forces, occupying southern Korea, are being stymied by this move, which Hodge has told President Truman, Secretary Marshall and others will stalemate the agreement to give Korea its freedom in five years.

Hodge also reportedly told the Senate armed services committee that Russia eventually may seek to have both Soviet and American occupying forces leave Korea after getting Koreans in her zone thoroughly indoctrinated and ready to make the country a Soviet satellite.

Marshall called in Sens. Vandenberg (R) Mich., and Connally (D) Tex. for a conference that lasted over two hours on the general subject of relations between Washington and Moscow.

Britain's Belt Tighter

Never in peacetime and seldom in wartime have the people of any great nation received the grim warning which Prime Minister Attlee has given the men and women of England. They must work harder and for longer hours. They must do without more of the necessities of life. They must forego some of the leisure to which they may think they are entitled after a long struggle against a foreign foe.

Failure to follow this course, says Mr. Attlee, might mean that "we never would restore the foundations of our national life." Even as it is and assuming that all these things are done, the country will not attain in 1947 the export goal which it needs to maintain a normal standard of living for its people.

The specific steps which the labor government is about to take have for one of their purposes a vastly increased production of all necessary commodities. Pursuing this objective, miners will be exempted from military service for five years and 35,000 new miners will be recruited. Nearly half a million men will be released by the armed services and added to the labor force.

Foreign laborers will be brought in and a campaign undertaken to attract housewives to the factories. Veteran workers of retirement age will be asked to stay on the job. For all of whatever age and condition, a certain amount of rationing will continue.

These are not the things the labor government promised the workers when its candidates ran for office. But it is now evident to the world that Britain has made scant economic progress since the Attlee regime took over.

No Royal Holiday

The trip to South Africa is not a vacation for King George VI. He and Queen Elizabeth and their daughters will have three months of strenuous public appearances, receptions and presentations in this land where George is king as he is of England. The South Africans have been looking forward to this visit of the present royal family, the first any of them has made there.

Being king has its disadvantages. Here are four people off to a faraway land, and never once able to relax. Wherever they go, whatever they do or say will gain the attention of the whole Union of South Africa. The other "Dominions Beyond the Seas" will also be watching it with keen interest. Further, since the royal family is the symbol of the British Commonwealth, the visit to this outpost of the realm is undertaken as part of an effort to bind it more closely together. The one-time impregnable empire has some rather shaky parts, but the Commonwealth of Nations still stands united and is expected to remain so.

This jaunt is no holiday. It is a job.

Steel And Paper

A critical shortage of freight cars threatens to throw a new brake on United States industrial reconversion, which finally has been getting under way full steam after an exasperatingly slow start.

Among those to feel first effects is the newspaper industry, which is faced with a curtailment of deliveries from Canada, source of 80 per cent of its supply, for at least a month. And American newspaper publishers, already in short paper supply, face even more drastic cuts.

The freight car shortage, says Railway Age, "is due to a single cause, namely an inadequate supply of steel. Not only are insufficient freight cars being built, but the current supply of materials is inadequate to keep at a minimum the number of cars out of service awaiting repairs." The railroads blame the steel industry and ask more "considerate" treatment in allocation. Their competitors, they say, are getting more steel than they ever did before.

Transportation is a raw material which is just as important as steel, and railroad transportation is far and away still the most important from the industrial viewpoint. The steel industry should recognize that its own well-being is linked to the problem of providing the railroads with the wherewithal to build enough freight cars.

Aid Not Withheld

Famine and disease are spreading in Romania. Famine threatens death to tens of thousands of people, according to reports. Romanian officials have been making special efforts to get foreign emergency assistance.

Romania, which looks to Moscow for political leadership, has been looking to Moscow for aid in the food crisis. It has not been forthcoming. Russia is having her own troubles with short food supplies.

Romania, which does not look to Washington for political leadership, has looked to Washington for aid in the food crisis, and not in vain. President Truman has ordered 7,000 tons of food now on the way to U. S. Army posts overseas to be diverted to Romania to be distributed under Red Cross auspices. There is no charge. The only stipulation is that the food must be distributed "with guarantees against discrimination on political, racial, religious or social grounds," whatever that would be.

This food is a gift from the American people to help prevent starvation in a country recently in arms as an axis satellite and now uneasily as peace under communist control.

Americans have given repeated proof that they will fight famine as an enemy of mankind and not on political grounds. Is it too much to hope that this gift from the American taxpayers to Romania will be received as some slight evidence that humanity and democracy are not unknown even to what the communist propagandists would call such a colossus of capitalism and imperialism as the United States.

Japanese wrestling, we read, is staging a comeback in Nippon. From what we've heard of the game it might just as well have stayed away.

Jap bouts last, as a rule, only three or four seconds. The spectators must wait for the showing of slow motion movies of the match to find out what happened.

The nearly nude wrestlers, before a bout, crouch, hands on knees, glaring at each other for 15 minutes. They look like a couple of baseball shortstops who forgot their uniforms.

Then the antagonists indulge in some preliminary sidekicks. It's our guess this is done to show there are no blackjacks or brass knuckles concealed between their toes.

The third step consists of the two Nipponese Joe Savolds making faces at each other. This succeeds in frightening only those children who happen to be in the arena.

Then one guy makes a quick pass at the other and—Pop!—the crowd is fighting its way to the exits.

Jap wrestlers are invariably gigantic, fat fellows. Apparently, when a Nip grapples isn't wrestling he spends his time eating. Since their bouts are so brief, they can easily squeeze in a championship match or two between the soup course and the entree.

WASHINGTON CALLING

Marshall Urges Universal Training

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—When an American of the stature of Secretary of State George C. Marshall makes a statement, it is a good idea for the rest of us to pay attention. Both in private before congressional committees and in public, Secretary Marshall has said that his country must have universal military training if we are to assume the responsibilities that go with our economic and technological power.

Gen. Marshall is not an Imperialist. He is not a warmonger. Because he is a soldier, who has seen the devastation of war at first hand, he is all the more anxious to keep the peace in the world.

Universal training is one of the toughest political subjects. Although the latest Gallup poll showed that 72 per cent of all Americans favor it, a very active and persistent group is in opposition. This includes, in particular, certain church groups.

President Truman named a committee of civilians to study the question, and he said the other day that he intended to renew his appeal for training. That committee, under the chairmanship of Dr. Karl T. Compton of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, is now holding intensive hearings. The committee will go to Fort Knox, Kentucky, to inspect a unit of soldiers being trained under the system proposed by the army for all 18-year-olds. Their final report is not likely to be ready before May.

Can't Ignore Issue
That gives us time to think about an issue which we cannot ignore except at our own peril. We can't afford merely to say that we don't like war and that therefore we're going to refuse to have anything to do with military affairs.

One of the most persistent arguments made by those who oppose universal military training is that such preparedness inevitably leads to war. This might be a good time to point out some evidence to the contrary.

The country that has enjoyed the greatest span of peace in our troubled world is Sweden. Sweden has been in no war since 1812. Since 1812 the Swedes have had universal military training.

It began with merely nominal training for a few days. In 1901 it was increased to 240 days; and in 1914, to 349. Today all young men in Sweden must train for approximately a year or longer.

No one can say that Sweden is a military dictatorship. The Swedes have moved steadily toward greater democracy, both in their economic and their political life. Military training is accepted as a responsibility of citizenship.

The reasons Sweden was able to keep out of World War II are many and complicated. In May of 1940, they escaped in large part because of the firm stand taken by Russia, then nominally at peace with the Nazis.

There was, however, a later invasion threat. That was in February of 1942. The Swedes got advance word of it in Berlin. They mobilized 400,000 trained men for active duty.

Would Be Costly
When Hitler learned this, he is said to have burst into a fit of rage. With his generals he had planned to use a limited number of divisions for a quick conquest. Full Swedish mobilization meant that the invasion would be more costly in men and money than he had expected.

NO CHANCE

Congress may fall short of popular expectations in some respects when it finally gets down to the actual job of legislating to minimize work stoppages through strikes. By the time we get to the general agreement among the majority on one point; that is, that the Wagner Act must be amended or discarded. This law, which labor leaders extol as "labor's magna charta" has made possible virtual union dictatorship in industry because of its obvious favoritism toward employees and its equally obvious injustices to employers. It was stated by a regional head of the National Labor Relations Board a few years ago that "the employer hasn't got a chance" before the Board and that "he is licked before he starts." As written and administered, the Wagner Act gives union representatives full freedom to organize industrial plants, even to the extent of intimidation or coercion, but denies employers the right to present their own case or to permit "company" unions. Employers have been dragged before the Board and penalized even for issuing statements correcting misstatements of union representatives. In plain terms, the act denies freedom of speech and practical freedom of contract to management.

The most recent action of the NLRB in that of upholding foremen's unions—something for which John L. Lewis has long contended. Unionized foremen, in the nature of things, must take the side of the union in any matter of controversy or disagreement. Adherence to the union would make it impossible for a foreman to enforce any sort of discipline or to insist on full production by workers in the union. If foremen are removed from the conduct of contract—management.

Words Of Wisdom

What are you going to do with your extra sugar . . . to many it will not be extra sugar that they have no use for. It will just mean getting back to nearer normal . . . a time when things go along and people eat what they want . . . buy what they want and go where they want at the time they want to do all those things. And the return to normal is coming right along . . . if there are no big strikes this year . . . by the turn of the year we should find ourselves in a good happy condition.

Pravda claims that Russia won the war . . . This puts an end to the claims made for "Lucky" Luciano.

But some Americans are of such doubtful nature they won't believe either one of them.

With typical political modesty, those who sprung Luciano from prison now are too coy to claim the credit.

There was similar reticence after Earl Browder was freed in order to weld us into one happy, laughing people.

Earl now appears to be in midstream . . . The commies bounced him but he hasn't yet joined up with the "I was a Communist Author's League."

Luciano didn't fool any of our federal watchdogs . . . They knew exactly where he was just as soon as a columnist told them.

It has taken no time to explode the myth that he won the war . . . The Soviet may be a little more difficult.

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERICH BRANDEIS

Well, Jean, my former secretary, is married and all settled in her new home in Port Royal, Va.

I haven't the slightest idea how she is going to get all her wedding presents into the little house where her husband had the courage to rent without her seeing it—but then, what difference does a house make when you are in the first blissful state of matrimony?

I know they are going to be very happy—and who knows more about what kind of wife a girl is going to make than the fellow whose secretary she has been for a long while?

Now I am sitting here in my office with a new secretary. She is going to be all right, I think, but at the present time we are still a little like two strange bulldozers who don't quite know what to make of each other.

Jean was definitely the housewife type. As a matter of fact, sometimes I thought that she kept my desk and the office just a little too clean.

You know how men are. They like to throw things around. I couldn't do that with Jean.

She put two ashtrays on my desk and whenever the ashes from my pipe landed on the floor rather than in one of the trays, she'd give me a respectful but dirty look.

Jean was a motherly sort of girl. She kept a bottle of aspirin tablets in her desk and whenever I sneezed once she'd come over to my desk with two tablets and a glass of water. When I sneezed the second time she'd close the window.

Like all secretaries, Jean had her own filing system.

I could never find a thing in the files, but Jean would find the right drawer and in two seconds have what I wanted.

Helen (that's my new secretary's name) is rearranging all the files right now.

I still can't find a thing in them, but she already knows her way around in the cabinets and has no trouble finding anything that I want. "X," but which for some reason known only to herself, she has put under "Q."

I do hope that Helen and I will get along. You have no idea how much a fellow depends on his secretary and how much her personality influences his work.

You may even notice a difference in my column.

Jean was naive. Helen is sophisticated and has that New York "nothing-makes-me-sick" air about her.

Maybe you wonder why I am telling you all this.

Well, lots of my readers have secretaries or husbands with secretaries. If the husbands have to break in a new one, I hope the wives will be a little patient with their spouses. If hubby hasn't much of an appetite tonight, maybe it isn't his stomach. Maybe it's his new secretary. (Copyright, 1947, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

"How can a man be so deceitful as to mislead his wife?" asks a minister. Is that a rhetorical question, or are you really seeking information?—Cincinnati Enquirer.

So keep your thinking caps on . . . watch for the important announcement that will give the time and place for the meeting that will collect all ideas and incorporate them into a working plan.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

CHILD IS REAL PERSON

Children are persons. The most important possessions of any person are his feelings. When we bring up a child well, he learns to have a high regard for the feelings of other persons. To this end we need to establish some restraints, some inhibitions in him, and in doing so we may temporarily hurt his feelings. Our aim should be to establish the necessary restraints and inhibitions so skillfully so as not to disturb his feelings any more than is necessary.

It is during times when we find no occasion to rebuke or punish the child that we really may hurt his feelings most; when he is telling us some of his experiences; relating to us some of his joys and sorrows, hopes or fears; showing us something he has made or done or is trying to achieve; when he is asking us a question or offering his opinion about something or drawing a conclusion; when he is trying with his playmates or pals present to save his face; or when he feels self-conscious on meeting adult strangers or is trying to converse with them—just to name a few situations.

Lard To Speak

When the child two, four, six, twelve, or sixteen is accosted by a friend of ours, but a stranger to him in our presence, he may find it hard to speak as he supposes that all is well or hostess. How do we expect him to speak? He may halt or stutter. He may not look at them as he tries to speak.

He may not, forsooth, be able to speak at all, being so nearly paralyzed with self-consciousness, with fear. How do we act then?

Do we insist that he shall speak to the stranger when he doesn't feel able to do so? Do we show embarrassment, even anger, when he doesn't? Too often by our very attitude and action, we render him more self-conscious. To that extent we certainly harm his feelings and injure his personality.

Guests In Home

When you have guests in your home or are with your child away from home and this child begins to talk to the guest or hostess, how do you act? Do you sit and breathe naturally then? Are you wholly relaxed? Do you reveal by your movements and demeanor that you feel all is well? Or do you indicate in all sorts of ways your fear lest he might say something he should not or make some mistake in expression?

Your child readily senses how you feel toward him. If he discerns that you are at ease and really proud of him his social courage soars, he feels and acts at ease, he enjoys participating in the conversation—he feels worthwhile, in short.

When his playmates or pals come to see him he may enjoy a feeling that all is well or constantly dread that he will be the one to say something which will make him feel dejected or inferior.

Even in the family circle his feelings or worthwhileness depend on our attitude toward what he says in the ordinary family conversation.

We parents do best to avoid undue wounding of the child's feelings and build up self-regard in him to the degree in which we constantly put ourselves in our imagination in his place so as to be a little as he sees, understand a little as he understands, and feel a little as he feels. Let us parents work and pray to use more of such imagination.

Chile's Claim To Antarctica Involves Monroe Doctrine
Anti-Strike Bill Legislation Seen Before Adjournment
Look For Extension Of Sugar Controls Of Some Kind

(Special To Central Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—It may take some time to develop, but one of the stiffest international legal fights ultimately will be waged over conflicting claims to the millions of square miles of ice-capped lands being explored by half a dozen nations.

There is no doubt of the metal deposits which lie below the ice-caps of Antarctica, and, even if atom-precious uranium lies there, its removal offers a handicap that could not be overcome in the near future.

However, man's ability to achieve the impossible has been demonstrated so many times that the world's major powers are taking no chances. Observers agree that it is doubtful if present claims to isolated polar land masses could lead the powers to go to war over them.

The claims ultimately may be settled by arbitration of the International Court of Justice at the Hague.

Chile, which has asserted a claim through the statements of her president, Juan Antonio Rios, has girded up the works as far as the United States is concerned. For Chile maintains that the entire Antarctica is a part of Chile.

Her statesmen claim that the area is merely an outcropping of earth of the Andes mountains, which form a spine down Chile's back.

The real competition lies in Chile's reasoning that, as part of Chile, Antarctica is really a part of the western hemisphere. Therefore, Chileans argue that the United States is committed, under the Monroe Doctrine, to prevent their passing into the hands of any non-American country.

This, of course, would bar any claims of Russia or Great Britain, which have started expeditions.

Republican leaders in Congress are getting ready to pass a revised version of the Case anti-strike bill before scheduled July adjournment and pass over more controversial labor questions until the next session.

There is one vital exception, and that is legislation to outlaw the $6,000,000,000 postal-to-portal back pay suits.

The Senate and House labor committees will report anti-portal bills within the next 10 days, and chances are that they will be given the green light on the floors of both chambers.

The legislation may make some changes in the Wagner Act. A strong demand has arisen among employers for changes in the act. But there is no certainty of this. In all probability proposals to outlaw the closed shop and industry-wide bargaining will be among matters postponed.

GOP strategy is to bring the legislation out of the Senate and House committees around the middle of March and to pass it through both Houses by mid-April. This would give Congress time, if the bill is vetoed, to reconsider the whole question and possibly pass a measure which President Truman would sign.

ST. LOUIS—Gen. Dwight D. ## Seek To Speed Production Of Freight Cars

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Representatives of the nation's railroads, steel companies and freight car builders met with government officials today to work out an answer to the critical freight car shortage.

Their goal was formulation of a plan that will boost car output from the present rate of 3,000 a month to 10,000 a month without the use of government-enforced allocations of steel.

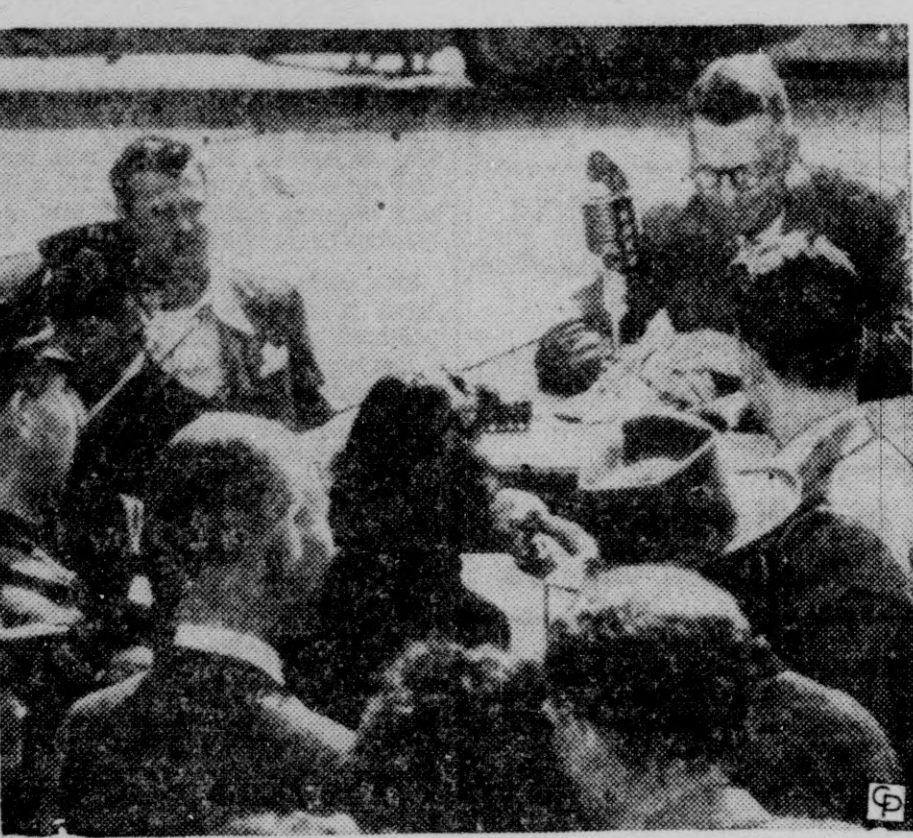

Sen. Reed (R) Kas., chairman of a Senate subcommittee which has been investigating the freight car famine and sponsor of today's meeting, said he was "highly optimistic" of a satisfactory solution.

Background for the meeting was a constantly increasing flood of pleas from every section of the country for prompt action on the shortage.

Eastern industrialists report they already have been forced to curtail production because of the lack of shipping. Grain farmers and millers of the north and middle west say they cannot get their grain to market. Publishers are finding their newspaper supply being choked off.

Government observers have expressed fear of grave production dislocations as a result of the creeping transportation paralysis.

Russian Forces Outnumber U. S. In Overseas Zones

Ratio Is Five-To-One In Germany
And Three-To-One In Korea

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Authoritative sources disclosed today that Russian armed forces outnumber the American by about five to one in Germany and three to one in Korea.

Officials based this estimate on latest reliable reports available in Washington.

It was stated that the Soviets have 500,000 officers and enlisted men stationed in Germany as compared with 150,000 United States troops in that theater.

Soviet strength in Korea was placed at 165,000 military personnel. Spokesmen said that this force is about three times greater than America's in that territory.

Russians Conscription
Meantime, Lt. Gen. John R. Hodge, commander of U. S. forces in Korea, told reporters that the Russians are conscripting in the red zone Koreans in the 17-25 age group for normal military training.

The general estimated that, based on population, it would be feasible for the Russian powers to obtain an army of 500,000 from this source. Hodge asserted he could "see no reason" for the action.

Comparison of the Russian and American strength in Germany and Korea was believed to have been made in an effort to spike rumors that demobilization of foreign troops has reached the stage where the United States could afford to cut its forces.

Officials were apprehensive that these rumors, described as without foundation thus far, might influence legislators to whack more vigorously at the military budget.

The war department said that it recognizes that "fundamental conflicts of purpose still exist between great military powers, and that a major conflict can occur at any time in the future."

The army said it is imperative that "we plan on the basis capabilities of potential aggressor nations rather than on estimates of probable intention."

Approximately 500,000 holiday makers of the British Isles visit the Isle of Man each year.

terms of divisions and perhaps also in time. This came as Hitler had extended his armies to the utmost in Russia.

In the end, the decision was against invading Sweden. You can make out a good case that little Sweden would have been overwhelmed had it not been for the fact that those trained men were mobilized to defend their country. From September of 1939 on, the Swedes never had less than 100,000 men under arms, and for long stretches the total was close to 400,000. Within the limitations imposed by Sweden's limited industry, they were equipped with the weapons of modern warfare.

During a wartime visit to Sweden, I asked a member of the coalition government for his opinion on universal training for America after the war. His answer seems to me worth setting down here:

"Of course, you will have to come to it. Otherwise you will never be able to meet your obligations in the world. You can never again rely on a period in which to prepare yourselves after war has begun."

Training and preparedness do not inevitably mean a militaristic state and the end of democracy. Progress can go along with training which equips young men for defense of the nation. We must not let the old stereotypes prevent us from honestly considering the recommendation which Secretary Marshall has made with so much urgency.

tol of management and the role of mediator between employee and employer—which function a qualified foreman should fulfill—then management is completely at the mercy of employees. This latest ruling, of course, is only consistent with the NLRB attitude to open bias in favor of the unions.

As a matter of fact, if the Department of Labor were to live up to its proper functions, there would be no excuse whatever for the existence of the NLRB. The record shows that the country enjoyed far greater industrial harmony without the Wagner Act than it ever has enjoyed since the law's adoption. Instead of promoting collective bargaining in any spirit of fairness, it has had the contrary effect, with the result that unions have been encouraged to use the most domineering tactics, well aware that the hands of employers are tied under the terms of the law.

We have lately learned, through experience, that government agencies interfering in our economic affairs have brought nothing but chaos. The NLRB is one more agency that could be disbanded without detriment to the general welfare. If the Wagner Act is not to be wisely discarded, Congress at least will appease public demand by making it impartial instead of wholly one-sided.

culture department predicted that rations for individuals would be increased 40 per cent this year and 33-1-3 per cent for industrial users.

But the sugar industry, looking to the future, decided that it would rather have controls for a while instead of being blamed for the high prices that result from removal of restrictions.

Good News For Folks Who Suffer From

✓ STOMACH GAS
✓ SOUR FOOD TASTE
✓ ACID INDIGESTION

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief from this nervous distress.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid pushing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

musical portion of the afternoon's program are Miss Alice Gillespie, pianist, and Miss Dorothy King, vocalist.

During business, there will be reports on pending national, state and local legislation. Climaxing the program will be a panel discussion on "Brotherhood" by the group of students from George Washington Junior High school who participated in the same program at the school recently. The panel is one of unusual interest and a large attendance of league and legislative department members and guests is anticipated.

They were arrested at their home in fashionable Coronado, near San Diego. Ingalls, a retired Boston

Stassen Baffled By Conditions Found In France

PARIS, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Former Governor Harold Stassen of Minnesota was in Paris today and already grappling with the first economic hurdle of his trip—the mystery of the $8.50 dinner.

The Republican, who hopes to be the next president of the United States, admitted he was baffled as to how the French get along on an individual monthly wage of eight to ten thousand francs, or about $7.

Stassen pointed out that he had to pay a thousand francs, or roughly $8.50, for supper last night.

The high cost of food was only one of the economic phases of French life that took up Stassen's interest after he arrived last night and registered at the Hotel Orillon.

Two hours after checking in he was quizzing reporters on the price of butter, the size of the black market, and prevailing salary levels.

Although Stassen had never seen Paris before, he passed up the usual sight-seeing spots to spend most of his time in "getting the lowdown" on how the French people live.

Stassen listened intently to all that Paris newsmen had to tell him about conditions and promised that he will give a press conference later in the week.

Would Penalize Persons Taking Boys Into Saloons

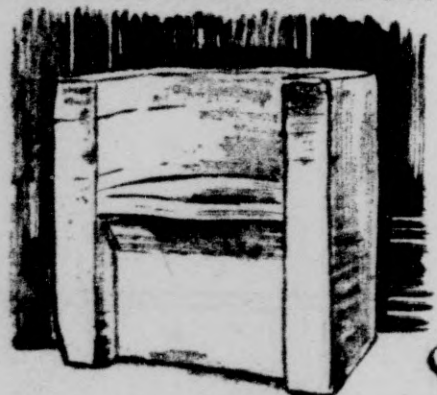

HARRISBURG, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Persons taking youths under 21 years of age into saloons, distilleries or breweries would be subject to a $50 fine or 20 days in jail under a bill before the House today.

The bill was sponsored by Rep. George D. Stuart (R) Allegheny.

Another bill, sponsored by Rep. Earl Chudoff (D) Philadelphia, would require clubs, hotels and liquor and beer licensees to use glasses clearly marked to indicate their volume content in ounces.

Senate Committee Urges 10 Per Cent Increase In Rents

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(INS)—A Senate Banking subcommittee on Tuesday recommended a flat 10 per cent rent increase and abolishment of OPA enforcement of rent controls.

The five-man subcommittee headed by Sen. Duck (R) Del., agreed on the following:

1. Repeal of rent control until December 31, 1947, but with removal of OPA jurisdiction—leaving enforcement of the law to the courts.
2. An increase of 10 per cent in rents over the level of Dec. 31, 1946.
3. Removal of rent ceilings on new construction and on newly reconditioned rooms.
4. Removal of all hotel accommodations from rent control.

Special Conference On Palestine Called

LONDON, Feb. 26.—(INS)—World executives of the Jewish agency for Palestine received cables today ordering them to a special conference to discuss British action in turning over the Palestine problem to the United Nations.

Dr. Nahum Goldman, a member of the world executive announced that the session would be held March 6 in Palestine.

The Jewish leader declared: "It is urgently important that the Jewish agency decided how to present our case to the United Nations since, unlike the Arabs, we have no direct representation."

Goldman said that the Jewish agency had been expecting the British government's decision, but that it was disappointed that the matter had not been settled before-hand and then offered to the U. N. for approval.

General Floor Co. Store Ultra-Modern

Remodeled Building On South Mill Street Offers Large Line Of Floor Coverings

General Floor company, 21-25 S. Mill street, after extensive remodeling, is open for business, offering the public a vast line of floor coverings, kitchen units and bins, and accessories.

The new establishment, which has been completely renovated into one of the most modern places of business in the city, has rugs, carpets, inlaid and printed linoleums, cork, rubber and ash asphalt tile, vitrolite glass, kitchen cabinet units, modern venetian blinds and a large line of maintenance products for all types of floorings.

The store has been changed from three storerooms into a place of graceful beauty. The front has been faced with black glass and large windows installed to give full-vision display space.

Inside the merchandise has been separated into long show-rooms, separated by arch-ways, with rugs, carpets and linoleums displayed on rolls which can be cranked to give the purchaser a full view of the covering. This eliminates the "sample" idea and immediately give the buyer an overall look at the product.

The basement of the building has been arranged as a show-room for tile flooring. Sewing and binding machines of the latest types are also in operation here to finish work on the rugs and carpets.

In the rear of the store are the office room and model kitchen displays, done in the most modern styles.

Frank W. Weddell, manager of the stores, has stated that the local branch offers the largest display of floorings between Pittsburgh and Cleveland.

Let Junior Cry Specialists Say

Despite Atomic Age, Methods Used
By Grandmother Are Declared
Best, Let Them Cry

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Next time Junior exercises his vocal cords—let him howl!

That's the advice of child specialists attending the 15th annual conference of the American Academy of Pediatrics in Pittsburgh.

And the doctors agree that, despite the atomic age, Grandma's method of rearing children are the best.

Let Him Wail
Dr. W. E. Blatz, director of the Institute of Child Study at the University of Toronto Canada, advocates letting the baby wail awhile, rather than placate him with a bottle.

He declared: "The child has to be frustrated sometime in life—and the sooner the better. It should become part of his routine. The child who learns early will be easier to handle."

Dr. Harry H. Bakwin, of New York City, advocates the "middle ground" in dealing with the youngster with the mighty lungs. He said:

"Parents should make an effort to please the baby—and grandma's rocking chair is one good way to do it."

The baby specialists agreed that the "rocking chair baby" is the most peaceable. They also approved the old-fashioned cradle.

To Start Hearings On Axis Satellite Peace Treaties

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(INS)—The Senate Foreign Relations committee decided today to open public hearings next Tuesday on the four Axis satellite peace treaties.

The committee headed by Sen. Vandenberg (R) Mich., hopes to have both Secretary of State George Marshall and his predecessor, James F. Byrnes, as opening witnesses on the treaties covering Bulgaria, Romania, Hungary and Italy.

To expedite the hearings and make possible an appearance by General Marshall before he leaves for the Moscow conference, the committee agreed to take up the treaties before certified copies of them are received.

At the same time the committee decided to hold a hearing Saturday on legislation authorizing United States participation in the international refugee organization.

Residential Division Workers Hope To Reach Everyone In Home-To-Home Canvass

"Every Citizen a Member" is the goal of the residential division workers in the Red Cross drive. Mrs. Ray G. Caruthers, chairman of this important division, urges that workers solicit membership in the home canvass from those in the family not reached by other divisions.

"Industrial workers, business and professional men and other groups are solicited at their work," Mrs. Caruthers said, "and we don't want to neglect these people. But the Red Cross deserves support from every citizen. We hope the housewife and the individual not otherwise solicited will make their own contribution. That's the job of the residential workers. We're counting on the folks at home to help us make our division quota."

Unsung Hero

The house-to-house canvasser is the unsung hero—or usually heroine—of any drive. Usually without the encouragement of large contributions she calls on her prospects with the purpose of giving every individual the opportunity of supporting the drive. While individual contributions are relatively small, the division can usually be counted on for an important share of the total fund.

The division has been organized by Mrs. Caruthers on a ward and precinct basis. About 400 women are in the division to cover all sections of the city.

Special Policeman Wounds Robber

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Police reported today that a special policeman shot one of two thugs who slugged and tried to rob him while he was patrolling his beat.

D. H. Satterfield reported that two men jumped from an automobile, knocked him down and attempted to take his wallet. He added that while he was on the ground he drew his gun and fired at one of the men.

He said the bandit fell, crying that he was shot.

Satterfield said the thug's companion dragged him into the automobile and escaped. His description of the wounded man tallied with that of a man who earlier had robbed two women, police said.

Dr. Wells To Speak On Day Of Reckoning At Revival Meeting

Men's Bible Class Of First Baptist Church Will Attend Service In Body Tonight

Inclement weather and uncertain walking conditions Tuesday evening failed to keep another large audience away from the city-wide revival services in progress at the First Methodist church, North Jefferson street, where Dr. Robert J. Wells, of Wheaton, Ill., is evangelist.

The attentive audience listened to a stirring appeal for Christians to mature in their Christian walk rather than remain in the early stages of their experience with God. Dr. Wells admonished his listeners to become spiritual believers rather than remain carnal Christians. Many accepted his invitation to advance in their Christian walk.

Again the young ladies quintet composed of Arlene Smith, Louise Smith, Arlene Reinhold, Anna and Eleanor Chovancek, accompanied by their pianist and composer, Mrs. V. E. Smith, won the attention of the listeners with their distinctive singing of the Gospel hymn, "Forrest Schickedanz, of Peoria, Ill., directed the large audience in group singing and conducted the choir as the members presented a special selection.

Tonight, Dr. Wells announces that his subject will be "When the Inhabitants of Hell Get a Vacation". The quintet and Mr. Schickedanz will be presented in many special selections.

The Men's Bible class of the First Baptist church will assemble at the Baptist church and march over to the revival meeting in a body to attend the meeting. Other special features are being planned for the revival when many outside delegations will be presented from Ellwood City, Slippery Rock, Beaver Falls and other outlying cities. Next Monday night is to be observed as Sunday school night.

Preceding each service, the prayer room is opened at 7 o'clock where Christians pray for the success of the campaign. Daily prayer services continue in the homes of the city at 10 a. m.

Report Heavy Snows In Some Sections

Northern and Southern Sections Of County Get Heavier Snows Than Most County Areas

State Highway department snow plows were concentrating their efforts in the northern and southern sections of the county today due to those areas receiving more than their share of snow over the past 24 hours, Alfred Martin, County Highway department superintendent reported.

Due to the incessant snows of the past few days the plows have been kept on the move to keep the roads open to travel. Main traveled roads are being cindered with the ashing crews working intermittently as the need demanded it.

The highway superintendent urged motorists to drive with caution and to use their chains to prevent serious accidents.

Pennsylvanians Have Good Health Records

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
(Washington Correspondent of The News)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 26.—Pennsylvania residents as a whole are more healthy than residents of most other states, according to an analysis of war service figures which has just been published in the Congressional Record.

Of all Pennsylvania residents examined for induction or enlistment during World War II, 25.7 per cent were rejected as physically unfit for service. In the nation at large, on the other hand, 30.2 per cent of all those examined were rejected. Only eight states had better records than Pennsylvania. These were Idaho, Iowa, Kentucky, Nevada, New Jersey, Vermont, Wisconsin and Wyoming. New Jersey had the best health record with only 23 per cent rejections.

The percentage of population 21 years old or over serving in the war was greater in Pennsylvania than all but ten states. Of the Pennsylvania residents in this category, 20.7 per cent saw war service. States with greater groups of their population in the war were Arizona, California, Massachusetts, Nevada, New Mexico, Rhode Island, Texas, Utah, West Virginia and Wyoming. Utah topped all other states with 24.8 per cent of all residents in the service.

Richard Heber, English book collector, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica, was never satisfied with a single copy of a book. He maintained that "No gentleman can be without three copies of a book, one for show, one for use, and one for borrowers."

REPORT DISSENTION

LEBANON, N. H., Feb. 26.—(INS)—Dissent among teachers marked today a threatened strike of Lebanon school teachers.

Miss Margaret Lincoln, principal of West Lebanon primary school, announced teachers in her classrooms would not support the strike called for next Monday by the Lebanon Teachers' Association.

The association has about 25 members, including all teachers except headmasters. It asked the school committee for a $400 bonus this year in addition to regular wages. Teachers said they were willing to compromise for a $200 bonus with a minimum salary of $2,400 a year.

Order Evacuation Of Italian Village In Path Of Lava

Lava From Erupting Mt. Etna Will Probably Erase Village Of Passopisciaro

CATANIA, Sicily, Feb. 26.—(INS)—The prefect of police today ordered evacuation of the hamlet of Passopisciaro near Castiglione, apparently doomed to destruction by a flaming river of lava from erupting Mt. Etna volcano. The eruption, Etna's first major demonstration since 1929, began yesterday and continued with violent intensity.

A column of lava hundreds of yards wide is moving down the slopes of the mountain at a speed of 225 feet an hour and Passopisciaro is directly in its path. Since the eruption started, the lava already has traveled a distance of six miles.

Carrier Pigeon Still Integral Part Of Army

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Shed a tear, if you will, for the army mule and the cavalry charger, but waste no grief on the Signal Corps pigeon.

The war department made it clear today that despite atomic bombs and guided missiles and all the other hot shot developments in the military business, the GI pigeon is still very much a part of Uncle Sam's army.

Plans were announced to continue the army pigeon service in peacetime with the chief signal officer in charge of the program.

Homing pigeons are going to be recruited (they never were affected by the draft, of course, anyway).

The army, according to a war department circular, also will experiment with pigeons "in order to improve characteristics of the birds, determine their powers and limitations under various conditions of climate, diet and training methods, and develop and improve pigeon equipment for military use."

Fixed pigeon lofts are to be maintained throughout the country. Just as they did in combat, the winged warriors will continue to carry messages with all the valor of a Col. Rowan, the man who carried that famous message to Garcia.

Specialized selected pigeons will be assigned to act as first sergeants to the army's feathered couriers.

The army, paternal as ever, will exercise strict surveillance over the love life of its pigeons. The regulation states:

"Breeding activities will be regulated to conform to the anticipated losses from flights, accidents, disease and disposal of surplus."

Tactical pigeon organizations are to be provided for field armies.

And just in case any nimrod enterains the idea of transforming an army pigeon into squab on toast, the army points out:

"Federal statutes make it unlawful for anyone to entrap, capture, shoot, kill, possess or in any way detain a homing pigeon owned by the United States."

Each GI pigeon will be issued a leg band, or dog tag, complete with serial number.

STAMP CLUB WILL ASSEMBLE EXHIBITS

Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, members of the New Castle Stamp club will assemble in their meeting room at the Y. M. C. A. to arrange for their coming stamp exhibit which will take place in the near future in the windows of several downtown business establishments.

Numerous reports will be heard concerning potential store windows where the displays will be placed.

John Hitch, president of the club, will be chairman of the meeting.

GENERAL MOTORS OFFICIAL AND WIFE INJURED

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Like the clown who wants to play Hamlet, Keenan Wynn is looking for a change of pace. It's not that Keenan wants to go overboard. But, the famous comedian is beseeching M-G-M to let him play a role in which there are moments of stark drama as well as humor.

He explained to your reporter: "You can't stay static. If you keep doing the same thing over and over again, you go stale."

"I have a role in mind which is wonderful. I'm trying to get the studio to make a test in the near future."

Right now Keenan is finishing his side-splitting part in "Song of the Thin Man". He's going right into another comedy role in "The Hucksters".

He's praying the next one will have some real touches of drama.

Titian-haired Beverly Tyler is celebrating her fifth anniversary at M-G-M by hoping she'll get a real singing role soon.

Beverly, who comes from Scranton, Pa., was signed as a singer by the New York M-G-M office on a chance visit to Gotham when she was only 14. During the next four years she was groomed in Hollywood for her screen debut. Most of the time she was taking lessons.

Wage Negotiations In Steel Industry Now Under Way

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Iron Age, national metal working paper, said today that the U. S. Steel corporation and the United Steel Workers of America have started initial negotiations on the wage question.

The paper said representatives of the union and the corporation had confined themselves so far to discussion of non-economic factors of the proposed new contract. The paper added:

"Both the steel industry and the union are already facing a different set of circumstances than was the case when negotiations opened more than a month ago. The industry has suffered a substantial increase in the price of scrap, one of the major raw materials in the present high rate of steel production, while the union on the other hand is currently facing a cost of living which is approaching the peak established last fall.

"While these two major factors will have considerable bearing on the progress of the wage negotiations there is little doubt that a moderate increase in wages will be granted."

Sheriff Conducts Sale Of Attached Stocks Of Robert C. Love On Tuesday

OTHER NEWS OF COURT HOUSE

Industrial stocks held by Robert C. Love, former president of the First Securities company, now in the county jail upon charges of embezzlement, were sold by Sheriff Frank L. Coen on Tuesday morning. In all there were 1187 shares sold in a block to Jack Genkinger, representing a client, at a price of $6 per share. The sheriff sold the stock pursuant to an execution issued by the First Securities Co.

The stocks were attached some weeks ago when the shortage in Mr. Love's accounts were discovered. The sale Tuesday was for the purpose of recovering as much as possible to apply against the shortage. Something less than $7000 will be realized. Bidding started at $3 per share and from there advanced to the selling price of $6.

BALDRIDGE TO RETIRE

With the resignation of Judge Thomas J. Baldridge of the state superior court, due to ill health, many attorneys of the Lawrence county bar feel the bench has lost one of its most valuable men. Judge Baldridge was appointed to the bench and then was elected for a full ten-year term.

Prior to his service as a superior court judge he served as attorney-general of Pennsylvania under Governor John S. Fisher. His resignation leaves a vacancy which will undoubtedly be sought after by a number of judges over the state.

HOUSEWORMING

"A close friend has just moved to a lovely new home. Is it her place to give a housewarming or may I do this in the form of a surprise, gathering a number of our friends and showering her with gifts? Are gifts essential from all invited guests or are they optional? Just how is a housewarming conducted?"

Answer: Sometimes friends surprise the occupant of a new house by dropping in unexpectedly, laden with gifts. But only very close friends should do this and only when they know that their visit will be welcomed by a hostess whose house is in readiness for callers.

Usually a housewarming, if given at all, is given by the hostess herself after she is settled and ready to show off her "proud possessions" to her friends.

It is all very informal. Invitations are telephoned or written on informals, visiting cards or short first person notes.

The housewarming may be a cocktail party, a tea or an evening party with a buffet supper. It is conducted exactly like any other party with games, dancing or other preferred entertainment, with the exception that guests are taken on a tour of inspection throughout the house. So everything, including the closets, should be in readiness for close scrutiny.

Each guest should bring along a household item for the new home—an attractive wastebasket, picture frame, a plant, bookends, etc., etc.

Question: Which would be more appropriate to hang over a fireplace—a mirror or a picture? And what articles could be used as decoration for the mantel? Would a clock be appropriate?

Answer: Either a picture or a mirror is appropriate for hanging over your mantelpiece. If you wish to increase the size of your room, a mirror will help do that. The reflection of the opposite wall in the mirror will give the appearance of a more spacious room. If you have a more spacious room, if you have a bowl of trailing ivy or attractive candlesticks, either placed at the ends of your mantelpiece will be more attractive than a clock, since your mirror will be your center decoration.

HAIR IN THE BUTTER

Hair is a nice thing to have, a beautiful head of hair is a joy forever.

We do not like hair in the butter though. There are plenty of good things in butter.

We know about some of the good things. There are probably some good things which have not been discovered yet.

Butter seems to be good for children if they are not too fat. If Susy is too fat she should go slow on the butter. If Tom is a little too thin, mother can put some extra butter in the cookies or mashed potatoes and he will not know the difference.

Butter seems to help to keep children in good condition and help them to grow.

Believe Bandit Shot In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Police reported today that one bandit was believed shot last night in a gun fight with a patrolman during the third holdup within two months of a Western Union office in Pittsburgh.

Patrolman Ira Palmer reported that he fired four shots at the fleeing bandits after he appeared from a hiding place in the oft-robbled office which he had been assigned to guard.

Palmer said the men robbed Manager Joseph Choynecki of $25 and ordered him to open the office safe. The policeman added that when the bandits saw him they fired three shots and fled as he returned the fire.

The office was robbed of nearly $700 last Thursday and $300 January 6.

"Twenty-fiver" Club Of New Castle Store Honored Tuesday Night

Ten members of the "Twenty-fiver" Club, who have completed a quarter-century or more with the New Castle Store, were honored at a dinner held Tuesday evening in a New Wilmington dining room.

The new organization came into being as the members gathered around a T-shaped table with a large cake in the center, inscribed "Twenty-fiver" club and flanked on each side with candles. There was a membership card at each place with an American Beauty rose corsage and a framed photograph of the club members.

Watches Awarded

Following a delicious steak dinner the ten women were honored with gifts of 17-jewel wrist watches. Perle Drummond was the first member to receive her gift after which the management congratulated the club on their splendid contribution to the success of the store. Then in turn, Lillian Edmunds, Mary Householder, Oia McMillin, Margaret Travers, Margaret Elley, Carrie Swanson, Nell Leonardson, Jennie Basile and Prudence Harris were presented their watches for their faithful service.

Recount Past

Following the gift presentations a round of stories and happenings lived the evening, with many of the club members recounting how they started in the employ of the store.

Mrs. Prudence Harris recalled that she started to work two weeks prior to Christmas 25 years ago. Miss Basile was hired as an extra girl for Dollar Day and stayed on. Mrs. Edmunds came back following a leave to teach a new girl and remained.

Mrs. Mary Householder said she remembers her first sale of 25 years ago when starting in the yard goods department and drew a parallel between the prices then and today. Mrs. Leonardson received her first work in the ready-to-wear department. Mrs. Swanson's first position was in notions. Miss Elley recalled starting her career on Dollar Day and selling silk satin at a dollar a yard.

Miss Travers started in the store as a switchboard operator and has since been an office worker, while Mrs. McMillin said she made up her mind to join the staff of the store on an hour's notice and has been there ever since. Mrs. Drummond, spokesman for the group, began her work as an extra while attending school.

Plan Annual Event

J. W. Staudinger, manager of the store, and toastmaster for the evening, stated today that the club will meet annually now since its inception and new members will be added to the rolls as they complete 25 years service. Employees leaving the store in the future once they have been in the club, will be honored at the annual affair the same as the active staff members, he said.

SENTENCE IS IMPOSED ON ROBT. C. LOVE

ing embezzlement, he was fined $1 and costs and one year in the Western penitentiary, to run concurrently with the first two sentences imposed. He will be eligible to apply for a parole after the expiration of his first 2½ to 5 year sentence.

List of Charges

As he appeared before the court with his counsel at 9:30 this morning, Judge Braham read the list of charges. On case 50 and 50-A, he was charged with false corporate statements, a misdemeanor.

On cases 51 through 51-H he was charged with embezzlement, a felony where the embezzlement was done by a corporate officer as it was in this case. Case 51 charges embezzlement of 280 shares of Lehigh Portland Cement Company stock, a value of $9520. Case 51-A, charges embezzlement of 80 shares of Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company valued at $3720. Case 51-B, charges embezzlement of 40 shares of Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company stock valued at $1360. Case 51-C, charges embezzlement of $500 interest on a loan of $20,000. Cases 51-D, F and G, also charge embezzlement of $500 interest on a $20,000 loan. ### Asks Leniency

Former Judge Charles Matthews, Jr.'s plea for leniency was a fine piece of work. It was not long, it was not maudlin, it was a forthright statement of facts with a plea for leniency because of the unusual features involved.

Said Judge Matthews: "There are a number of unusual features in this case. Mr. Love is a man who has spent all his working days associated with banks and financial companies. He was in a position of trust in two of our banks of which neither was in any way connected with the peculations. Mr. Love has been held in high regard in this community and he was never suspected let alone accused of any violation over the years. It seems to me unusual also to place a quarter of a million dollars worth of securities in a man's hands without asking for a fidelity bond or making an audit in fifteen years. The directors of the First Securities Company are for the most part men connected with financial institutions.

"The position of president of the First Securities Company carried no salary. In the throes of the depression Mr. Love carried a large trading account. In the market crash he borrowed money from the securities company to bolster his brokerage accounts, putting notes in the company's assets, it then being thought that the worst was over and any one who could hold on would recoup later. This was not true, and gradually he began taking money and putting no notes in the assets to secure the company.

"I do not feel this defendant is a criminal. Had he been so inclined he could have committed offenses against the banks in which he held positions of trust. We can only conclude that he was unable to resist. This was not 'mala in se' (bad in itself) this was a case of where a man could not resist the temptation. "The worst punishment that can be imposed is one that the courts cannot impose, the disgrace to his family. Because of the unusual features of the case we ask that the court consider leniency for Mr. Love."

Attorney James E. Chambers then spoke, representing the Love family. Said he: "We are attorneys for Mrs. Love. In behalf of her and the family, we ask leniency for Mr. Love."

Not Just Criminals

Replying to Mr. Chambers, Judge Braham said, "the office of judge would be easy if we dealt only with offenders. We are constantly sentencing women and children. In sentencing a boy for the theft of an automobile, it is no excuse that the owner left the keys in the car." District Attorney Leroy K. Donaldson then presented the commonwealth case. He spent little time, pointing out that the court had the facts in front of it.

Speaking for the court Judge Braham then passed sentence. Prefacing his sentence he expressed regret for what had gone and said it was a difficult task for the court. He then imposed sentence.

DEFECTIVE CHIMNEY

City firemen were called to the home of James Kearns, 7 Boroline street, Tuesday evening, when a defective chimney set fire to the floor adjoining the chimney. The fire was extinguished by use of the booster tank on the Pirsch truck from Central station.

Palestine Problem Is Most Difficult

WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—(INS)—The dean of the House today quoted President Truman as saying the Palestine problem is a "most difficult situation" and that he has done "everything" possible toward a settlement.

Mr. Truman's feelings were revealed by Rep. Sabath (D) Ill., in commenting on British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin's charge that a statement by the President caused the breakdown of Palestine peace negotiations last October.

The White House remained silent on Bevin's statement, but Sabath reported that the President advised him last week that "I have done everything I possibly can to get a settlement." Sabath then quoted Mr. Truman as adding:

"I am still hoping for one—it is a most difficult situation."

Sabath described as "manifestly unfair" Bevin's charges which raised a hornet's nest of protest in Congress.

Getting Married? Just Read This

HARRISBURG, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Men and women planning to get married had a word of financial advice today from a Harrisburg banker—don't take the step until you save $1000.

Albert W. Case, vice-president of a Harrisburg bank, declared in a lecture on marriage at the YMCA that long-range planning in terms of a budget was the secret to successful management of home finances.

"No couple should think of getting married unless they have $300 in cash, and the wise couple would have at least $1000 before getting married," Case said.

"The old saying that 'two can live as cheaply as one' is untrue," he added.

New Castle Closes Floor Season With 44 To 27 Win Over Ellwood

Don Black Scores 22 Points To Star In Season's Finale

Black Probable Leader In Section Three Scoring, Result Of Exhibition

New Castle Leads After First Few Minutes, Season Total For New Castle 102 Won—10 Lost

New Castle High's "Whiz Kids" closed the 1946-47 basketball season last night at Washington gym with a 44 to 27 defeat of Ellwood City's Wolverine quintet in Section III making four wins and eight defeats for New Castle and giving them fifth place in the tough loop. The Douglassmen for the entire season won 12 and lost 10.

Don Black, New Castle diminutive flashy forward, with 22 points in his best exhibition of the year will probably be the leading scorer in Section III, depending of what happens in the Ambridge-Alquippa game tonight at Alliquippa. Hammond, of Farrell, had six points last night giving him 142 points, while Black has 144. Cable, Alliquippa, and Stepanik, Ambridge, are the only boys who could catch Black and they will have to score 21 points to do it. Black is a junior and has one more year on the New Castle team.

New Castle leads last night early in the first period after Chuck Rea had tied it up at 3-3, and from there on the Bill Douglass coached machine held a substantial lead. The first period ended 12 to 3 and the half 25 to 12. The end of the third period found New Castle in front 36 to 21. The final period was slow and uninteresting with New Castle adding eight more points and Ellwood six.

Watters-Rea Through
New Castle High said farewell to two of their star performers last night—Don Watters, sensational young guard, and Chuck Rea, dependable center. Both boys played a fine game in their finale and between them added 15 points to the total—Rea with eight and Watters with seven.

Black was brilliant all evening, with 13 points the first half and nine in the second half. Ellwood could not stop Black, who made several shots with plenty of Ellwood men watching him as he zoomed under the basket and planted markers.

Ellwood Loses Five Men
Playing their final game for Ellwood last night were Don O'Hara, Bill Eady, Eddie O'Hara and Greene—another senior, Calderone did not get in the game. Coach Ted Wallace used nine men in the game. Douglass used eight. New Castle will lose next year Al Tate, Jimmy Pears and Al Marcotulli, who did not play last night.

Coach Bill Douglass will have them back. Douglass has with his nucleus next year along with Wayne Gray, Jimmy Janascone, and Big Wayne Fullerton, also on hand, plus a wealth of material from the junior highs.

Ellwood Walks Off
The victory last night was the second for New Castle over Ellwood City—the game at Ellwood having resulted in a 45 to 42 score. New Castle in Section III defeated Ambridge Beaver Falls and Ellwood twice. Ellwood won two and lost 10 in the section.

With a minute and ten seconds to play last night the Ellwood City team walked off the floor and refused to finish the game apparently due to a misunderstanding. A crowd of about 1,000 fans witnessed the game and were confused over the strange ending of the 1946-47 basketball season in New Castle.

In foul tossing New Castle was good last night making 16 out of 30, with Ellwood having 7 out of 18. Best in the Ellwood lineup was Gregg with eight points, followed by Don O'Hara with seven and Eddie O'Hara with five.

New Castle won the preliminary game 26-26 over Ellwood.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Los Angeles Jimmy Doyle is back, and Cleveland has got him—along with Jimmy Bivins and Ezzard Charles.

The Irish welterweight carved out a 10-round split decision over Ralph Zannelli of Providence Monday night at the Cleveland arena before 7,891 to make his Ohio comeback a success.

Charles, leading light-heavyweight contender, and Bivins, durable heavyweight king, will tangle March 10 at the arena, it was announced.

Heeter To Quit Beaver Falls Hi Cage Mentor Job

Low Heeter, cage coach at Beaver Falls high, has requested permission of the athletic committee of the school board to step down as floor tutor due to the physical strain.

The Tiger coach took over the job in the 1944-45 season and piloted his charges into the final play-offs of the W.P.I.A.L. This season his team finished in the cellar, winning but two games while dropping 10. Heeter plans to continue in the valley school as an instructor but will withdraw entirely from the coaching game. The final word in the matter is up to the committee which has received the Falls mentor's request. The retiring coach has been active in cage circles for the past 15 years.

Sharon Hi Takes Lead With 44-33 Win Over Farrell

Tigers Win 10th Of Season; Leave Issue Up To Aliquippa In Hot Section Race

SHARON, Feb. 26.—Sharon high's Tigers left the Section III issue squarely up to Aliquippa today as they posted their claim to the title here last night with a 44-33 win over their inter-city rivals, Farrell.

The Colodi passers swept to their 10th win of the season against two setbacks and will now await the outcome of the Quip-Ambridge battle tonight in the valley for further developments in the heated race for honors. The Indians must repel the "Bridgers" to stay in the picture—a win tonight giving them the same record as Sharon and forcing a play-off for the crown.

After yielding Farrell the opening frame, 10-9, the Tigers went ahead, 11-10, after 10 seconds of the second period and were never headed thereafter. The halftime score was 25-22, Sharon and 33-27 at the end of the third canto.

For the Colodi lads, Listiak and Garay paced the attack, scoring 12 and 11 points respectively. Big Bane Weber returned to action, getting three fielders and playing part of the second and fourth periods.

Angott Wins At Canton By TKO

CANTON, O., Feb. 26.—(INS)—Sammy Angott, former lightweight boxing champ, tucked away today his second success on the comeback trail as a welterweight.

Sluggin' Sam gained a technical kayo over Johnny Bryant of Massillon, O., in their 10-round headliner Monday night at the Canton Armory before 1,000. Tuffy Phillips, Bryant's manager, called a halt to the proceedings at one minute of the fifth round.

Murray "Sugar" Cain, Harlem belter, whipped Lightweight Kid Chocolate of Canton in the six-round semi-final.

Cleveland's Mayor Would Bar Graziano

CLEVELAND, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Mayor Thomas A. Burke today "recommended" to the Cleveland Boxing Commission that Rocky Graziano, New York prize fighter, be barred from fighting in Cleveland. The mayor said he did not believe Graziano would be well-received in Cleveland since his life-suspension by the New York commission. Under city law, the mayor has the right to rule out any Cleveland appearance for Graziano.

Roughhouse Rocky has been sought by Matchmaker Larry Atkins for an arena card, possibly against Cleveland's rising Chuck Hunter.

COACH ON STRIKE; GAME CANCELED

DUNBAR, Pa., Feb. 26.—(INS)—Basketball players at Dunbar Township High school are being affected in more ways than one by the strike of the school's teachers. The game with Point Marion High school was postponed because the coach is among the strikers.

There was no changes in the strike picture, with the teachers still demanding a $300 cost-of-living pay boost and the school board insisting funds were not available to pay it at this time.

GUERRA IS LONE HOLDOUT OF MACKS

Rose Speaks To Fathers And Sons

Fathers Are Urged To Set Examples To Sons In Address Before Lions Club

In an address fraught with good advice, Rev. J. Calvin Rose, pastor of the Second U. P. church, advised members of the New Castle Lions club to become closer companions of their sons, and urged the sons to heed the words of their parents. Rev. Rose spoke on the occasion of the annual father and sons meeting of the club in The Castleton, Tuesday noon.

Before there can be juvenile delinquency, there must also be parental delinquency, the popular local pastor stated. He spoke of a recent visit to Morgantown, the state's correctional institution, and some of the causes of the delinquency which placed some fine appearing youths in that place.

Too many fathers only give their sons the time they have left over at the end of the day, when they are tired from their day's labor, and it is often too little. What the boy does not get from his father, he will pick up from someone older on the street corners and it often is not too wholesome, he pointed out.

In addition to men giving more time to their boys, he urged the boys to take their fathers into their confidence, and to invite them to go with them.

"The things a father does for a son are the things he thinks are best for him, he told the boys. They think you are the best in the world and would give you the shirt off their backs. Remember this and respect their judgement," he urged in conclusion.

J. Arthur Turek, supervising principal of the Union Township school, was admitted as a new member of the club.

Lawrence County Farm, Home News

By Extension Representatives: Lewis C. Dayton, Agriculture, Mrs. Mary McClain Hollibaugh, Home Economics.

COUNTY FARMERS SHOW THAT SOIL EROSION CAN BE CONTROLLED

Contour strip cropping cuts down soil loss, according to James Gilmore and William Nesbitt, Little Beaver Township farmers.

Rain-water running off their fields, used to carry so much soil with it that formed a sizable gully. This interfered with the use of machinery, and cut down crop yields.

A few years ago Mr. Gilmore and Mr. Nesbitt combined several fields together, and divided them into strips with the rows as nearly level as possible. They plant corn in every other strip, leaving hay or wheat in between. Recently they reported that the soil washing had stopped, and that the gully had filled in and was no longer a problem.

Anyone interested in controlling soil erosion may obtain information from the Agricultural Extension Office, No. 206 Post Office Building, New Castle.

Would Prohibit Barring Workers In Closed Shop

HARRISBURG, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Union working under closed shop agreements would be prohibited from barring applicants from membership under the provisions of a bill introduced on Tuesday by Sen. A. Evans Kephart (R) Phila. Kephart said the measure was designed to curb abusive practices by unions and to assure "equality of opportunity to workers."

The bill would outlaw any experience requirements imposed by unions, and place a $25 ceiling on initiation fees.

"Unions have had the closed shop for so long that I don't think it should be taken from them," Kephart said. "I do feel some provision should be made to prohibit them from closing the door to tradesmen desiring to join in order to obtain employment."

Kephart said his bill did not carry the endorsement of labor. Legislation reducing service requirements for general officer appointments in the Pennsylvania National Guard from 15 to 10 years was before the senate military affairs committee.

Miami Police On Seven-Day-Week

Seek To Suppress Wave Of Burglaries, Holdups And Petty Thieving In Miami

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 26.—(INS)—Miami Beach policemen began operating on a seven-day week today as authorities sought to suppress a wave of burglaries and holdups that netted thieves more than $200,000 in cash and jewels over the week-end.

The crime wave, which was highlighted by a daring night club robbery and the theft of $75,000 in jewels from entertainer Sophie Tucker, continued as late as Monday afternoon, Ex-Governor Arthur H. James of Pennsylvania, also was among the robbery victims in Florida.

A room prowler at the ocean front Traymore hotel took $9,350 in cash, jewels and furs from the room of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bluestein of Santa Monica, Calif. Early yesterday two bandits walked off with a safe containing more than $25,000 at the popular Lighthouse restaurant on the north beach after forcing two employees to lie face down on the floor. This raised the total loss of cash and jewelry to more than $200,000 in the sudden burst of open lawlessness.

Twelve Pass Operator's Test

Twelve persons passed a test to drive an auto yesterday when state police held examinations at the Armory. Several failed. All cars were equipped with chains.

The names of those who passed are as follows:

Joseph Beck, Pulaski R. D. 1, Edward A. Beckman, 113 Holton street.

Robert L. Simon, 719 North Mercer street.

Dale J. Shifflett, R. D. 4, William H. Boyle, 426 Park avenue.

Casper M. Winkler, 340 Shaw street.

Norman D. Hunt, R. D. 4, Guilford W. Wells, 645 East Washington street.

Ralph M. Jordan, Ellwood City R. D. 1.

Robert L. Millen, Ellwood City.

Robert K. Puz, Ellwood City M. R. 7.

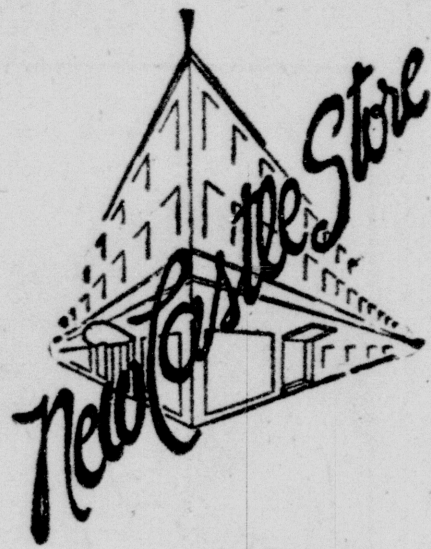

Leo Kelly, 304 South Walnut street.

NO LONGER SUSPECT

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Police acknowledged today they no longer regard Phillip E. Smalley, 31, electrician, as an important suspect in the January 15 "Black Dahlia" horror murder.

Police said, however, they are still checking his story of a January "spree" during which he had a date with a girl possibly Miss Short.

Smalley was arrested in San Francisco last Friday at the request of Los Angeles police. They said he was known to have frequented bars favored by the Black Dahlia, Elizabeth Short, 22.

Westinghouse Co. President Gives Report For Year

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—(INS)—President Gwilym A. Price today told the board of directors of the Westinghouse Electric Corp. that the four-month-long strike of 1946 resulted in an operating loss of $59,768,997.

Price also laid the loss to the scarcity of materials, inadequate price under OPA and the moving and rearranging expense involved in the corporation's expansion plan.

He said the operating profit for 1945 was $48,443,839. Price said that tax refunds coming from the carry-back feature of federal tax laws and other incomes, enabled Westinghouse to show a net income of $8,823,846, as compared to a net income of $26,744,066 for 1945.

Price said: "Westinghouse enters 1947 with a firm belief that the return of competitive economy and with continued cooperation of employees the year can be one of steady work at good wages and salaries and increased production."

He said unfilled orders at the end of 1946 reached a new peacetime high of $589,583,459, adding that in spite of production difficulties output hit a new peacetime high of $301,691,788. He said that was substantially below the 1945 figure of $685,132,834, most of which was represented by war production.

SUN VALLEY, Idaho, Feb. 26.—(INS)—Screen Actor Kurt Kreuger was suffering a broken left leg today as a souvenir of slalom skiing in deep, new snow.

Kreuger, an excellent skier, was hurt when his ski caught in deep snow between Sun Valley lodge and Galena summit. He was taken to Sun Valley lodge hospital, where doctor said he is in "satisfactory condition."

Some Changes Occur In Prayer Centers

Several changes have been made in the meeting places. In the home of Mrs. Scott Kerr, Temple avenue, the service has been canceled and the group will unite with the service in the Edward Swan home, 924 Temple avenue.

The following services have been canceled due to unforeseen circumstances: Earl McCormick, 515 County Line street; Mrs. Elizabeth Myers, 31 1/2 North Mill street; Mrs. Nettie Peacock, 211 East Leasure avenue; Mrs. Myrna DeLancy, Delaware avenue.
